

Q-4

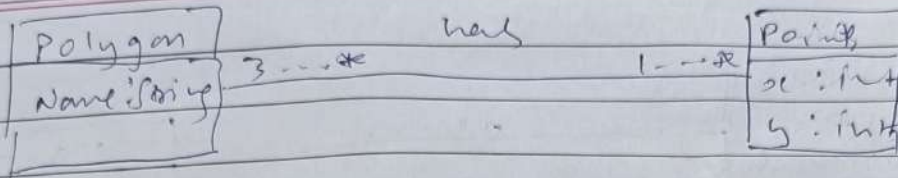

Q-1

Q-2

Q-2

A polygon needs atleast 3 points to be constructed. Points can either be unique to be a polygon or can be shared b/w polygon.

yes, if points are shared b/w polygons, it affects the integrity and uniqueness of each polygon.

Multiple polygons can share the same points. Points are ordered because the sequence of points affects the shape of polygon.